

Changing the intermediate assertion to $\mathsf{LeastRoot}(13, 3)$ changes its proof obligation.
The program still writes and returns 4. Quantified properties retain their original logical form.